

Father Hudgins To Leave St. Jerome's

Sad hearted parishioners of St. Jerome's parish received notice at Mass on Sunday morning that Reverend Father Thomas C. Hudgins, curate for the past year and one half at the church, has been ordered to report to the Mattapan State Hospital for duty.

Father Hudgins, lovingly called, "A sure priest of God", was ordained in 1946 at the Holy Cross Cathedral in Boston after graduating from St. John's Seminary in Brighton.

He took up his priestly duties at the Blessed Sacrament Church in Greenwood where he organized the largest Womens' Catholic club in the diocese, and was director of the Altar Boys.

Father was transferred to Arlington on December 6, 1948. In his short stay here he endeared himself to every person that ever met him. He organized and promoted the St. Jeromes' baseball team for boys, the hockey team, the CYO clubs for boys and girls, increased the enrollement of the Holy Name Society and organized a large chapter of the Womens' sodality. Reverend Hudgins in announcing from the altar his transfer said, "When a priest is ordained, he takes an oath to obey his Bishop. In accordance with that oath I am leaving on Tuesday to take up new duties at the Mattapan State Hospital."

"However", father went on to say, "I regret that I have to leave, for since I have been in this parish the people here have been just swell. Mrs. Manning, our housekeeper, has been just like a mother to me. The pastor has given me the guidance a young priest needs, and everyone from the ushers at the church to the man on the street could not have made me feel more welcome."

It was announced that Reverend Francis Cottrell has been transferred from a parish in Scituate to take the place of Father Hudgins. Reverend Cottrell graduated from the Seminary and was ordained this past June.

Father Hudgins will have his new residence at St. Andrews rectory in Forest Hills.

Hearing On Center Plan Conducted By County Commission

Two hundred people attended the meeting held Tuesday night, at the Robbins Memorial Town Hall, by the County Commissioners, relative to the proposed Arlington center plan.

The purpose of the meeting was to enable the Commissioners to hear how the Townspeople felt both pro and con, in relation to the new center proposal.

The case of the planning board was presented along with proposals by other groups attending the meeting.

Mr. John O. Parker, chairman of the planning board, and Mr. John Blackwell gave the planning board side of the story, showing movie slides of the various stages of development of the present plan.

The plan is generally the same as that presented in March to the Town Meeting members. However, minor changes have been made at the request of various State boards in order to facilitate the flow of traffic on some of the roads and to reduce the land takings.

The County Commissioners advised the assembled group at the hearing that other changes in the plan could be made, but the plan in its essence is the one which would be constructed if so voted.

Mr. Melvin Rogers, chairman of the County Commissioners said, "Few people realize that if we (the County Commissioners) decide that it is matter of public convenience and necessity to construct this plan, it must be built."

Mr. James Cullen, a member of the board of commissioners verified this statement but went on to say that it has not been the policy of the commissioners to force anything down the throats of the people of the Commonwealth.

The plan as presented by the planning board is as follows: To widen and extend Chestnut street from Medford to Prescott street, opening a new way from Brookdale road and Mystic street to Prescott, modest widening of Prescott and Winslow to Mass. Ave. opposite Pleasant street, bending Mystic street, from Chestnut street towards Pleasant street, at Mass. Ave. and leaving access to existing buildings and off street parking areas in the former pavement of Mystic street near Mass. avenue.

Mr. Henry Keenan took the floor at the meeting and advised the people and the County Commissioners on the following five points: "1. This plan would entail making two new grade crossings; The railroad is definitely opposed to any and all grade crossings:

2. "In relation to the plan presented by Mr. Mansfield (A road along the railroad track to Water street and out over the Town property to Mystic) the railroad

Caddies Get Scholarships

Two Arlington caddies were among the eighteen picked from 13 golf clubs throughout the State to share in the Ouimet caddie scholarship award of 1950.

The idea of the Ouimet scholarship is to select eighteen boys from various golf links throughout the state, who are qualified to enter college but are not financially able to do so, and supply them with some of the necessary funds.

The boys make application for the award and after being screened by a board of educators for their scholarship and personal qualities the eighteen with the most qualifications are selected.

Frederic M. Cameron, 126 Overlook road, Arlington, caddie at the Winchester Country Club, will enter Boston College, and Richard M. Foohey of 6 Park Street, Arlington, caddie at the Winchester Country club, will enter Boston College;

Osmund O. Kiever, president of the Ouimet fund said that when the plan was set in motion last year, 13 boys were granted aid toward a college education. This year the fund was able to grant this aid to eighteen boys.

Other officers of the fund are George E. Russell Jr., vice president; Ralph H. Bonnell, secretary; and T. Edmund Garrity, treasurer.

Window Broken In Street Fight

A plate glass window on the store of a Center clothing shop was smashed early Saturday morning when a youth was assaulted by a young man in the doorway, according to police reports.

The youths were not identified but it was alleged that a young lady and a youth were standing near the doorway of the shop when the fight occurred. In the struggle the youth was pushed through the window of the store.

Town department men were forced to block the street with lanterns until the glass could be repaired.

Profits-And-Lives

This week an Arlington family is in mourning for a lost son—a youthful hero who gave his life in our United Nations battle in Korea. His death may bring our war closer to many of his Arlington friends and neighbors, but no written word can console his family.

This week, with the news of his death and that of many young Americans from Bay State and New England, came news of price increases and profit jumps from our industrial front.

Washington sources revealed that industrial profit has been increased 23 percent since the Korean war began. Aircraft profits were up 116 percent; building equipment up 89 percent; iron and steel up 60 percent; all before Korea.

By creating a seller's market, Korea will have increased corporate profits—big business—by 23 percent over the first half of the year.

One of the nation's largest concerns settled a strike this week—then announced price increases of from six to 13 percent. Yet this same concern revealed that the profits for the first six months of the year nearly doubled the same period in 1949.

"Profiteering" is not a pleasant epithet, but the present profit increases have come without necessity for converting to war production. All the jumps Mr. John Q. Public has faced in the past few weeks have been made only because big business knew the government might ask them to go to work on war products. If the threat brings this condition, what will happen to prices when the government really goes all out for materials.

Automobile companies are making more cars than ever before—August reached an all time high in production—steel is more abundant than in history—labor is not scarce nor have their been many pay hikes—distribution is still relatively simple; but dealers are asking higher prices. Most of these higher prices are passed on by the manufacturers, and they represent only one thing—higher profits.

Big business must face a test, and for the past few months, it has not been following the American way.

But men are dying in a far away nation, and it is sad to realize that only a part of America is at war.

3. "The traffic count, which the planning board keeps referring to, was taken when the Pike and the Parkway were torn up and traffic was detoured through Arlington."

4. We should use the new roadways which are being constructed and repaired around the Town:

5. "Will we have to widen Pleasant street for all of this extra traffic under the new plan?"

6. "I have advised the joint Board of Public Works and Selectmen to erect signs on all of the routes which come into Arlington advising them to use an alternate route around the Town. They have refused to do this. Are they afraid it will work?"

At a late hour a vote was taken, concerning construction of the grade crossing, with nine in favor and 46 opposed. Twenty-one voted in favor of the plan in general and forty eight against.

The Commissioners will now take the plan under advisement and at a date to be announced in this paper will hold another Public Hearing in the Town Hall.

Many Projects Are Underway

This past week several state projects have been started in Arlington, most of these as a result of Legislation or requests filed by Representative Henry E. Keenan. The Alewife Brook ripraping is definitely taking shape and the second half of the contract is to be advertised shortly for bids which will call for the landscaping and the creation of a parkway area, including park benches, foot paths and trees to beautify this area. The Concord Turnpike is being resurfaced from the Alewife Brook Circle to the Pleasant Street Underpass and this whole area is to be cleaned up to match the other construction that was completed this past summer. The Alewife Brook Parkway is to be resurfaced from the Concord Turnpike Circle to the Mystic Valley Parkway, including the new traffic circle now under construction at Powder House Boulevard intersection and the Mystic Valley Parkway. The Banks of the Mystic River will be improved further with the installation of park benches and the general

ART EXHIBITION ON FOR ONE MORE WEEK

The exhibition of portraits chosen from the 150,000 prints owned by the Robbins Art Collection will hang in the small gallery of the Robbins Library for one more week, until October 7th. One of the most interesting portraits exhibited is that of Cotton Mather, one of the famous Puritan ministers. This portrait, a mezzotint done by the English born Peter Pelham who had settled in the American colonies, was published in 1727 and is the first mezzotint portrait made in America. Pelham's prints are the best ones made in the United States before 1800. This artist is also interesting since he gave his step-son, John Singleton Copley, the earliest training in art that this first famous American painter received.

Anniversary Of Origin
Kiwanis Club Observes

The Arlington Kiwanis Club held a Twenty-fifth Anniversary Celebration and Ladies' Night on Thursday, the twenty-fifth, in Robbins Memorial Town Hall. Representative Henry E. Keenan, President of the Club, presided and greeted the members and guests.
The invocation was delivered by Dr. L. Curtis Foye, a past president. Dr. Franklin P. Hawkes, Director of Fair Educational Practices in the State Department of Education was introduced as Toast Master. Joseph A. Purcell, Chairman of the Arlington Board of Selection, brought the greetings of the Town. Alvin A. Klauer, Governor of the New England District of Kiwanis, spoke for Kiwanis in general and, in particular, complimented the Arlington club on its high standing and local services.
Bob Green, Lieutenant Governor of Kiwanis at the time the Arlington club was chartered, and Alan Blacklock, present Lieutenant Governor of Kiwanis were introduced.
At the close of the formal program,
Reverend Father O'Connor, Pastor of St. James Church in Arlington, pronounced the benediction.

The principal speaker of the evening was the Honorable Frank W. P. Miles, Judge of the Roxbury District Court. He spoke of the juvenile delinquency problem as he has encountered it in his long court service. Many of the so-called delinquents, he said, are not fundamentally bad boys or girls, and not beyond reform. Many of them, perhaps most of them, are victims of environment of squalid surroundings; of neglectful, uninterested parents who not only do not guide their children right but who, by their own vicious lives actually give bad example. As a result, he said, these children drift into the streets, into bad companionship and into offenses that finally bring them into court. When they appear before him, he does not view them as offenders to be punished, but rather as human beings to be salvaged. He takes them into the Judge's lobby; talks to them in a fatherly way; points out what the results will be of continued wrong doing. He said that this plan has succeeded and that in many cases he gave instances—they have returned to thank him for what he had done for them. He declared that the right way to handle juvenile delinquency is not to sit in the "scorner's seat", but rather to help all that we can to save these unfortunate children.

Twenty-Five Year Membership Certificates were awarded to Walter T. Chamberlain; Maurice L.
Hatch; L. Brooks Saville; Norman
M. Walkinshaw.

Entertainment and dancing closed the evening.

Junior Press
Club Meets

Guests at the meeting of the Junior Press Club on Saturday afternoon, September 16, were Miss Mary Sparks, Public Relations Secretary of the Boston Diocesan Educational Department, and Miss Janice Lyons of Dorchester.

Reports from the Journalism Division of Fordham University recommended books including George Washington's Diary, especially of 1781, as showing the value of personal accounts during historic days. In May, 1781, Washington wrote, "I begin at this epoch a concise journal. I lament not having attempted it from the commencement of the war." The book "Later Years of the Saturday Club" was also recommended to show the permanent value which can come from friendships devoted to worthwhile interests.

It was decided that during the rest of the school year all activities of the Club will be under the direction of the teachers at school with no more special meetings until next vacation.

New Gym At Jr. High West Open On Friday

The New Gymnasium at Junior High School West will be open for public inspection Friday, September 29, 1950 from 3:00 P. M. The public is cordially invited.

The new unit provides:

- 1) A combination Gymnasium-Auditorium with 1000 seats, sufficient for any group activity or assembly of the school and adequately provides for the requirements of the Physical Education Program.
- 2) A folding partition which, when expanded, divides the main gym floor into two separate gym areas, each with independent exits and entrances, thus permitting simultaneous, yet completely segregated, activities by the boys and girls. A real advance in administration.
- 3) Modern and adequate shower and locker accommodations for the pupils, properly located in relation to the physical training activities.
- 4) Health, hygiene, first aid, doctor and nurses examination facilities.
- 5) Area layout so planned as to maintain an assured segregation of the sexes and to promote proper supervision and safety during all activities.
- 6) A stage large enough to properly present school dramatics, orchestral and choral productions.
- 8) A sheltered entrance to the school in winter from the hill approach on Quincy Street.

This entire Gymnasium-Auditorium unit would be self-contained and so constructed that it could be entirely closed off from the academic buildings should the auditorium be permitted for extra-curricular or community affairs.

The community owes much to the work of the Building Committee appointed by the Town Meeting Members in 1948. Members of the committee are Mr. John A. Allison, Chairman, of 34 Webcowet Road, Mr. James Doyle, Secretary, of 23 Chester Street, Mr. Sherman Peppard, 7 Gray Circle, Mr. Clifton Fogg, 44 Kenilworth Road and Mr. Herbert J. Cronin, 34 Kenilworth Road.

Miss Katherine McCarthy, Physical Education Director of Girls and Mr. Russell Peterson, Physical Education Director of Boys have been anticipating the use of the new Gymnasium and have made plans. The addition of this new unit, according to Mr. Clifford R. Hall, Superintendent of Schools, makes for the well-rounded program of a real Junior High School.

Teachers from the Junior High School West staff will be on duty to answer questions.

Letters To The Editor

I am very grateful to those who honored me by their vote which gave me one of the nominations for Representative in the 25th Middlesex District, comprising Wards 6 and 7, Somerville and three precincts in Arlington.

Analyzing the votes cast, it is interesting to note that over 1000 voter asked for a Republican ballot under our two party system for the nomination, then voted for three Democratic candidates. . .

There is a dangerous trend that is weakening our structure of choice in the election of candidates. It took place on Primary Day. . . In a primary campaign, the purpose of which is, for voters to nominate Republican candidates, who specify they are Republicans, and for Democrats to nominate Democratic candidates who specify they are registered Democrats, which is the American way, but certain candidates chose to bake their CAKE on the griddle of political deception and placed it on the ballot for consumption, by being candidates on both tickets. . .

I congratulate, Former Alderman, Leo B. Mallard, who was a candidate and who condemned such political trickery.

Also, W. E. Mullins, editorial writer for a Boston paper, called it professional political "hogery". I have also been informed that prominent Republicans and Democrats were very critical against this political chicanery, because it takes away or removes some of our inherited rights for a free choice for candidates on party lines, and the large number of voters who were reported by the occupants of 44 Granview road. Police said Jimmy mark were found all around the door of the house. . .

Monday, 8:47 a. m. . . Frost and Higgins reported that a load of lumber had been stolen from their yard on Mill street. The truck that carried the lumber has been identified.

were deceived by this device should take real cognizance of the candidates that play both ends to the middle for their own personal gain.

I convey to the electorate this important point which is very pertinent:

If Democratic Candidates on a REPUBLICAN PRIMARY BALLOT RECEIVED THE NOMINATION, and the same candidates on the DEMOCRATIC BALLOT received the nomination, they would be automatically NOMINATED AND ELECTED, no further contest necessary. . . I challenge the Two Democratic nominees in the 25th District to deny the validity of this statement of fact through your newspaper.

Time to change the law by omitting the word REPUBLICAN and DEMOCRATIC, when candidates substitute UNENROLLED or INDEPENDENT, or eliminate all designation when any candidates choose to run on any ballot opposite to their registered designation. . .

It is time to affirm and champion courageously whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, and whatsoever things are of good report. . .

If those who voted for the two Democratic nominees on Primary Day, on a Republican ballot, and those who voted for Republicans on a Democratic Ballot, desire to be champions of political intrigue and deception on Election Day, the road is open.

I will not barter, trade or sell my designated party principles on PRIMARY DAYS under the banner of intrigue, deception and political subterfuge. . .

Again, Thank You for your endorsement and confidence. . .

COMEDY HOUR

Mr. Doncaster Thanks Voters

Alderman James R. Doncaster, successful candidate for nomination in the contest for Representative in the 25th Middlesex District, today made public announcement of his heartfelt thanks to the voting public for the excellent reception given to his candidacy.

He stated that despite his personal gratification in leading all candidates in his own ward 7, he definitely did not consider the victory a personal tribute but rather the result of the enthusiastic and selfless efforts of the many persons who worked in his behalf. He added however that between now and election day there is much more work to be done to assure final victory and he urged one and all to continue their fine work.

Alderman Doncaster further stated that his campaign for election will follow the same high standards as have his previous campaigns and that he will make every possible effort to meet personally every voter in the District and thus afford them the opportunity to discuss face to face with him any and all matters affecting the District.

Arlington Smothers Rivals From Somerville By 20-7

O'Brien Tallies Twice As Locals Capture Opener

By Frank Mahoney

In the opening game of the 1950 season, Arlington High School, powered by a star studded backfield, swamped a hapless Somerville High 20-7, before some 4500 fans at the Warren A. Pierce stadium, Saturday afternoon.

Although the Arlington squad opened its game with eleven men who saw action against Somerville last year, they were handicapped in that Somerville had already made its 1950 debut. Somerville had gotten over its opening day jitters.

The touchdown twins, Don O'Brien and Red Salisbury, assisted by Moose Muello and Bill Kenealy provided the yardage and power to score a touchdown in each of the first three periods.

Don O'Brien, scoring ace of the Salisbury, O'Brien combine, carried the ball over for the first tally early in the first period.

The first quarter opened with Somerville receiving after winning the toss. The Arlington kick landed on the Somerville 25 yard line and was picked up by Buchanan, Somerville fullback, and returned to the Somerville 34. On the next play Scozzaro, Somerville quarter-back, lost four yards and then failing to complete a pass kicked out.

The kick was taken on the Somerville 42 by O'Brien and run back to the 37 yard stripe. The combination of Salisbury and O'Brien plus the magnificent blocking of Muello, carried the ball to the Somerville 11. Two penalties, one for off-side and another for too much time in the huddle, kept the ball from being on the one yard line. Salisbury took the ball on an end run from the 11 but Stauffer, Somerville left end, stormed through the Arlington line and knocked Salisbury for a nine yard loss, placing the ball on the Somerville twenty yard line. Somerville took over but in three successive plays lost the ball ending up on their own fifteen with a fourth down coming up.

The Somerville men were then forced to kick in an attempt to get the ball out of their end zone but the high winds and a poor kick sent the ball almost straight up in the air and it landed on their own 17 yard line.

Arlington then took over, with Salisbury racing to the Somerville seven. O'Brien took the ball on a handoff from quarterback Kenealy shot out around right end, straight arming two Somerville line men, and then piled through for the first score of the game. Oppedisano kicked and the score read, Arlington, 7 Somerville, 0.

In the second quarter Arlington showed most of its sustained power, scoring 79 yards rushing, while the Somerville eleven managed to score a (-2) in the same box.

The quarter opened with Somerville in possession of the ball on their own 42 yard line. In three downs they got the ball to their own 38 and attempted a pass on the fourth down against a strong wind. The pass was incomplete and Arlington took over on the Somerville 38.

Arlington carried the ball to the 29 when a fumble gave Somerville possession of the ball. They could get nowhere and were forced to kick.

The kick was taken on the Arlington 33 and a most startling series of penalties overtook the Arlington club.

O'Brien took the ball on the Arlington 33 and rushed forty nine yards to the Somerville 18 only to discover a lineman had been offside. The Arlington club was penalized five yards placing the ball on their own 28. In the next series of plays, Muello, O'Brien and Salisbury carried the ball to the Somerville 35. Then Muello took the ball for a ten yard run, but it was again called back and another five yard penalty, called as an Arlington backfield man had been in motion. This put the ball on the Somerville forty yard mark. Salisbury then took the ball, after Kenealy had been trapped eight yards behind the line of scrimmage, and carried it to the Somerville twenty eight for a first down. O'Brien took over the loting for awhile but lost ground to the Somerville thirty. Muello carried to the twenty five and Salisbury took the ball to the Somerville 13. On two more successive plays O'Brien went over for the second Arlington Touchdown. He crossed into pay dirt dragging four Somerville players with him. The score was

At half time the ball was exactly on the 50 yard stripe.

The third quarter opened with Arlington kicking to Somerville. The ball was received on the Somerville 27. Erikson, Somerville Right half back, carried to his 36. In two more downs, Somerville could not move the ball and was forced to surrender it on the thirty seven yard marker.

With Joe Egan filling in for Don O'Brien, the Arlington club put on their third march of the day storming into scoring territory.

Muello took the ball from the Somerville 37 to the 34 and Egan raced to the 30. Then on a pitchout from Kenealy to Salisbury the ball was run to the Somerville thirteen. Muello took the ball to the ten and Salisbury again carried to the four. Joe Egan inched over to the Somerville two for a first down and on the next play managed to get to the Somerville one. Salisbury then lugged the ball and scored the third Arlington touchdown. The conversion attempt was no good and Arlington led Somerville, 20-0.

Somerville scored its only touchdown in the fourth quarter, after slugging its way through the Arlington second team for seventy yards. Scozzaro, was the power that pushed Somerville over the line.

Scozzaro plowed and passed his way from his own eighteen yard line to the Arlington line despite a fifteen yard penalty and a beautiful pass being knocked down by Salisbury. The final score of the game was Arlington 20, Somerville seven.

LEOMINSTER NO PUSH-OVER SAYS HARVEY

The usual soft touch, Leominster high school, will not be the push-over that was anticipated.

Looking over the two games played this year at Leominster would give any coach more than a few qualms going on to the field. Leominster high has won two of its games this year defeating St. Clements of Somerville and Nashua High, 24-0.

The defeat suffered by Nashua is its worst since 1942 when coach Buzz Harvey took over the team.

Buzz said, "It's the runningest, passingest, trickiest team I have ever put my men up against."

Coach Henry Toczowski has watched them play and gives special commendation to DeCarolis and Pirro the ends, whom he claims are extremely fast men. He also cited Wonkka the fullback and Tata, right half back, as being superb on the field.

Highlights

The ARLINGTON PRESS picks as its players of the day the following;

Lineman, Law Albertelli, Arlington and Dick Skeffington, Somerville; Back field; Don O'Brien and Paul Salisbury, Arlington and Carl Scozzaro of Somerville....

According to a press box survey, Saturdays game was the first in which a felt hat blowing across the field, being chased by its owner, caused the referees to call time....

Fights are a fairly common thing at a football game but when three girls start practicing the manly art of self defense, that's news....

The new uniforms of the Arlington band are certainly a sight for sore eyes....

After Saturdays fiasco of people tramping all over reporters, nearly knocking down the wiggly bench supposedly called a press box and the high winds whipping papers out of the writers hands, WE think it is time a decent structure was built at the High School stadium, to house the gentlemen of the PRESS....

Playing out of position and being too anxious could have caused some disastrous results Saturday, had the locals been playing lets say Waltham....

Credit for a game well played should be extended to Joe Egan, Bill Kenealy, Al Tartarini, Moose Muello, Charlie Oppedisano, Bob Theller and Don Winter. All of these boys did an excellent job in their position at the opening triumph.

Winchester Winner Over Swampscott 8-0

Winchester high school's fast-improving football representatives stepped into the Class B. title picture at least temporarily last Saturday as they powered their way to a neat 8-0 victory over Swampscott high before a crowd of nearly 3,000 at Manchester Field.

A stubborn defense which checked the Swampscott attack consistently was the big factor in Winchester's second win of the 1950 season. The Winchester forward wall outplayed the Swampscott linemen most of the way.

Winchester drove 45 yards for a touchdown in the opening period of the game, and added a safety in the closing minutes to pile up their scoring total.

Johnson and Donlan paced the attack as Winchester moved into Swampscott territory mid-way in the first period. Johnson and O'Brien crashed to the eight, then quarterback Jost Michelson flipped a neat toss to Tony Cirusso, his right end, in the end zone. The attempt to convert failed.

Most of the rest of the contest was staged in midfield with neither team tying together a concerted drive.

In the final quarter Winchester forged deep into Swampscott territory, and seemed to be heading for paydirt. However, the Sculpins dug in and finally held on down on their own one yard line.

Rather than play it safe, Swampscott gambled for a tie, and Frankie McFarland carried the ball from the end zone. The Winchester line broke thru however, and McFarland was smeared in the end zone for a safety to put the games on edge.

Winchester showed up to advantage in spots during hard fought contest.

The locals will face their biggest test of the season to date when they journey to Watertown this week-end. A win for the local team will establish them as a definite contender for the Class B. crown already vacted by Gloucester. Watertown was near the top in 1949, and already have shown an able aggregation thus far.

Last Saturday's summary:

Next week, Leominster and what is supposedly called a soft touch. Authorities claim this team should not be underrated in the Class "A" race this year....

Forty-Eight Hours For Jewish Appeal

Forty-eight hours will determine the outcome of the 1950 campaign of the Combined Jewish Appeal of Greater Boston.

This crucial period will be Sunday, October 8, and Monday, October 9, when an intensive effort will be made to solicit contributions throughout the metropolitan area.

Called upon for their contributions on Sunday, October 8, while the Women's Division volunteers will take over on Monday.

Chief beneficiaries of the campaign are the United Jewish Appeal, which carries on reconstruction and relief programs in Israel among DP's and New Americans, and the Associated Jewish Philanthropies, 22 local health and welfare services. Almost 200 local, national and overseas agencies benefit from this one drive.

Urging all givers to cooperate by staying home so that workers can contact them, Campaign Chairman Harold Sherman Goldberg declared, "We need 100 percent participation in order to raise the money needed to provide vital services throughout the world."

Mrs. Carl Spector, Women's Division Chairman, stressed the need for "plus" giving by women. "This means money which women give on their own, in addition to their husbands' gifts. Money that they save from their budgets or personal income truly represents them and shows their interest in the campaign," she said.

In Arlington the drive will be led by Dr. Alfred Yood for the men, Mrs. E. H. Yood for the women.

PIERCE SCHOOL P. T. A.

The Pierce School P. T. A. is running a "Vanishing Tea" this year as its fund raising project.

The first tea was held on Sept. 20th at 2 P. M. in the school library following a board meeting with Mrs. George W. Lea presiding. Members of the board enjoyed Mrs. Lea's hospitality at this initial gathering.

Notices have been sent home by the school children explaining the plan of the Vanishing Tea.

Donations of twenty-five cents are being asked of each participating guest.

The board is sincerely confident that all P. T. A. members and friends will take an active interest in participating with the teas to help make our 1951 financial goal a success.

Form Group In Opposition To State Lottery

The Social Action Committee of the Arlington Council of Churches is actively opposing the proposition to legalize a State Lottery, which will be presented to the voters on the November Ballot. At an organizational meeting of the Committee Tuesday, September 26, called by Mr. Walter Sargent, President of the council, Mr. Lawrence B. Arthur of the Park Avenue Congregational Church was elected Chairman of the Committee.

Plans were made to raise sufficient money to wage a really effective fight against the Lottery and contributions for that purpose may be sent to Mrs. James W. Daily, 96 Churchill Ave.

Other members of the Committee are: Mr. J. J. Trinity Church, Mrs. Von Weston of the Unitarian Church, Mrs. Raymond Young of the First Baptist, Mrs. James W. Daily of the Pleasant St. Congregational Church, and Mr. Howard Ensor of St. John's.

Navy Exams For College Program Scheduled Dec. 9

The Navy announced recently that the fifth nation-wide competitive examination for its College Training Program has been scheduled for December 9, 1950, and will be open to high school seniors or graduates within the age requirements. Successful candidates will be given a four-year college education at government expense and will be commissioned as officers of the Navy or Marine Corps upon graduation.

The program is open to male citizens of the United States between the ages of 17 and 21, and quotas have been assigned to each state and territory on the basis of its high school population. Those who are successful in passing the aptitude test will be interviewed and given physical examinations; then, if they are found in all respects qualified, their names will be submitted to state and territorial Selection Committees composed of prominent citizens and naval officers. The Navy expects to enter about 1600 students into the program commencing with the fall term of college, 1951.

The students selected by these competitive examinations will be assigned to the 52 Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps units which are located in various universities and colleges in the United States. If accepted by the college, they will be appointed Midshipman U. S. N. R., and will have their tuition, books and normal fees paid for by the Government. In addition they will receive pay at the rate of $50.00 a month for the four-year period. Upon graduation they may be commissioned as officers in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and required to serve on active duty for two years. At the end of this time they may apply for retention in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, or transfer to the Reserve and return to civilian life.

From the time that this program was initiated five years ago, Arlington High School pupils have been represented each year on the list of successful candidates. Approximately 85 boys in the present senior class will take the competitive examination which will be administered locally in the High School Building on December 9th at 9 A. M.

Bert A. Roens, Director of Guidance, for the School Department who is acting as the Navy's local civilian representative, will be pleased to provide specific information about the program, including time and place of the examination, the method of making application, and the specific age and scholastic qualifications. He may be reached at ARLington 8-5800.

The first fall meeting of the Arlington Heights Improvement Association was held last night under the direction of the President, Lawrence E. The guest speaker of the evening was Representative Henry E. Keenan who explained the recently enacted bill to allow cities and towns to make minor repairs of unaccepted streets, and it was explained that the Town would have to accept this act at the annual Town Meeting in March to enable the residents on unaccepted streets to get passable streets at a very low cost.

The last item discussed was the bus service at Arlmont Village and in the Heights area in general, and the residents of Arlmont Village stated that they were satisfied with the service rendered by the Lovell Bus Company but that several residents demanded more service from the Hudson Bus Lines on Sundays and holidays.

Issue New Health, Welfare Directory

Social workers, educators, doctors, personnel managers and other professional men and women working with people who have personal problems will welcome the new directory of the health and welfare resources in Massachusetts, which is being released today.

The result of more than a year of work by two central social planning organizations—Massachusetts Community Organization Service and United Community Services of Metropolitan Boston—the directory lists over 3300 tax-supported and voluntary agencies covering all 351 cities and towns in the state.

Its publication marks the first attempt to give a comprehensive listing of the Commonwealth's major social services. In addition to name and address there is a brief description of the program of each agency. Red Feather services (those participating in Community Chest campaigns in various cities and towns) are indicated by a Red Feather symbol.

Only a limited edition has been printed. Copies ($2.50 each) may be obtained by calling or writing Directory Secretary, United Community Service, Mason Memorial Building, 14 Somerset Street, Boston. Tel: RI 2-2000.

Under the auspices of USC and COS, a corps of volunteer specialists assisted in compiling and editing the directory.

Headed by Robert N. Fuller of Springfield, Editor-in-Chief, the Editorial Board included

William P. Suple of Winchester, Mass. President, Public Assistance Administrator.

THE NEW YORK GIANTS may win the National League pennant. I don't believe that they'll do it, but they still have a mathematical possibility. That would make the team a "cinderella" outfit for sure, because during the early days of the 1950 campaign the Giants spent most of their time in, or close to, the National League cellar.

But the Giants suddenly caught fire. The purchase of Jim Hearn from the St. Louis Cardinals may have been the break, or it may be because Dan Mueller suddenly found himself. But, whatever the reason, the Giants started to climb, until right now, they're a threat to the National League leaders, and they are the hottest team in baseball.

This is the sort of comeback that rains gold at the turnstiles. Normally when a team comes out of the cellar, and shows a chance to grab the pennant, the fans start to knock down the gates to get in. So it's surprising to know that the New York Giants, doing business in the largest city in the world and with the largest population area from which to draw, are seventh in the National League attendance figures.

The Pittsburgh Pirates lead at the gate, the Phils are second and the Braves third. From this, you must draw the conclusion that the New York baseball fans don't care particularly how the Giants fare. And the dwindling Giant gate receipts may be the reason behind the rumor that this is Leo Durocher's last season as manager.

If you can't draw with a pennant contender, something must be wrong.

Arlington Fire Dept's Notes by "SPARK"

Two box alarms have been recorded so far this week. Box 422 from Addison and Pleasant streets sounded at 7:45 a. m. Saturday morning for an oil burner fire in the cellar of 15 Wellington street. The home belonged to Mr. William H. Bell. damage was reported as negligible.

Sunday morning at 11:10 the department was called to Park Avenue and Lowell streets, box 77, for a fire in a coal shed at the Pierce and Winn company yards. The fire was reported to have been caused by the spontaneous ignition of rags atop a pile of coal.

We have made mention in this column on previous occasions of the necessity of having oil burners cleaned before putting them into use. The wisdom of these words has been clearly witnessed in the increased number of runs of the fire department, for oil burner fires.

To prove our point further; note Sunday a seventy year old lady went out for the afternoon with her son. Before she left the house she was advised that it would probably be cold before they arrived home and the oil burner should be lit. It was. The family arrived home three hours later and when they opened the front door smoke and flames met them. A hurried call to the fire department brought the men in ruined to save the day damage; one ruined oil burner, one burned kitchen wall, and smoke damage throughout the house. Had they stayed out another hour, but that's another story. MORAL: HAVE YOUR OIL BURNER CHECKED BEFORE LIGHTING IT FOR THE WINTER.

Not many odd notes in personalities about the department except that John "Dynamite" Day still thinks he's the worlds toughest fly weight while Chet Egan claims he eats as much for breakfast as John weighs; then I promised "Sleepy" Felton I would mention his name in my column as gratis for the ride home the other night so, just to keep his friends advised.

"He still sleeps as much as ever. We haven't heard much about "Purple Flash" Kelly lately, except that he is still in training. Then again Chief Dispatcher Lawrence R. Sley still insists that no man is quite as capable as he when it comes to handling the many emergencies that arise in the course of a desk watch. And I think he's right.

Blood Donations At St. John's Hall Mon.

Arlington residents are being urged to fulfill both patriotic and humanitarian motives by being blood donors when the Red Cross bloodmobile will be here for donations at St. John's Episcopal Parish Hall, next Monday.

Registrations can be made by calling Arlington 5-8675.

Dr. Richard J. Moran, chairman of the blood donor day, is urging donations for men wounded in Korea, for servicemen and veterans in local military hospitals and for the ill and injured mothers, fathers and children at local hospitals.

The need for blood, since the Korean conflict, has increased greatly. Needs can be met only through the contributions of the healthy.

"It's the least we can do at home," said one donor, "to give a pint of blood for the boys who are fighting for us over there."

Donating blood is easy. It is painless, and done in such time that you hardly realize you have given of yourself to help others.

Of all the commodities that are being manufactured, stockpiled and shipped for war, one item that is manufactured within us... our blood is a shortage item only when unthinking people don't make it available.

The average adult has about 13 pints of blood in his system. After donating one pint it is fully replaced within 48 hours. It would be a tragedy if it isn't available for the medic at the fighting front or for the home front doctor treating his patients.

Doctors, of necessity, use great quantities of blood in saving lives day by day in operating rooms. Blood is a life-saver, and is one of the greatest medicinal products in the treatment of the ill, injured and wounded.

A mother in child birth may need blood; a person injured in an accident resulting in a ruptured spleen, causing internal bleeding, may use three pints of blood; in acute tonsils' cases, one pint may be used; as many as 15 pints may be used for bleeding gastric ulcers.

Metropolitan Boston, as the medical hub of the world, has made tremendous advancement in the study and use of blood, saving untold numbers of lives, some in this community, and to aid in further life saving there must be continual blood donations.

Jewish Women Plan Big Drive

Women of all four communities are invited to attend the meeting, where speakers and a film will bring them a vivid picture of the needs which will be met by the 1950 Combined Jewish Appeal campaign. Chief beneficiaries of the drive are the United Jewish Appeal, which supports reconstruction and relief programs for Israel, DP's and New Americans; and the Associated Jewish Philanthropies, 42 local health and welfare services. In addition, close to 200 national and overseas agencies receive funds from this one appeal.

At the Wednesday evening meeting Mrs. Eli Reingold, Arlington Women's Division Chairman, will pour, assisted by Mrs. Louis C. Lerner of Lexington, and Mrs. Clarence Richmond and Mrs. Martin Hoffman, both of Arlington.

Ernest Brenner Declines Recount

Although he placed second by a few hundred votes in a fifteen man contest for the Republican Nomination for Governor's Councilor, towns, Ernest Brenner of Somerville, today indicated that he would not seek a recount.

Despite the pleas of his many friends and supporters, in civic and veterans circles who feel that a recount could show a change of three hundred votes in such an extended area, which includes approximately three hundred thousand voters, Mr. Brenner stated: "Recounts are expensive to the tax payer, frequently cause friction and make for party disunity. I am extremely grateful for my fine showing in carrying ten of the twenty cities and towns over the top five contenders, and also the flattering vote given me in my home city of Somerville, where I carried every ward and precinct with a total vote approximating the combined vote of my fourteen opponents.

I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to my friends and boosters who worked so diligently in my behalf."

All proceeds from this annual charity ball are earmarked for the Archbishop Cushing Charity Fund, and the Archbishop has indicated that he will turn over all monies received, to the Junior Seminary Fund.

William P. Toland of South Boston, past grand knight of Pere Marquette Council is general chairman of the Columbus Day Ball Committee, and Past District Deputy John T. ## Break Record

A two year old track record was smashed last week when Bill Squires, a junior at Arlington High School, finished first in the cross country race between Arlington and Haverhill High Schools.

Arlington defeated Haverhill 18-20, in a race which saw Squires cover a two and one quarter mile stretch of track in 13 minutes and two seconds, shearing eleven seconds of the old record established in 1948 by Joe Griecci of Arlington.
